Thank you for your feedback.

We have discussed internally the best way to manage some of these challenges over the weekend and welcome the opportunity to discuss with you this week.

Our goal is to be compliant with our contract, ensure we include appropriate and proper reviews, and deliver excellence to our clients.

Thank you,
Beth

Hi Stefanie,

Your team is doing an outstanding job navigating a complex environment. As the COR, there are many people who are important technical advisors to our campaign activities/deliverables. While it is challenging, please keep in mind that only the CORs (myself and Janell) can provide actionable direction. I believe Atlas staff understand this well, but felt the need to clarify given some of the emails over the last several days.

Many thanks,
April

I approve Sabato, Anthony, Ludacris and Shulem, so please finish with the missing vets as soon as you can. We must film them ASAP – we need content in the can now. Thanks, MC
